U.S. Department of Transportation Secretary Anthony Foxx Re-appoints Dr. Carol Cunningham to the National Emergency Medical Services Advisory Council

COLUMBUS-- U.S. Transportation Secretary Anthony Foxx recently appointed 25 Emergency Medical Services (EMS) executives and practitioners, physicians, researchers, and patient advocates to serve on the National Emergency Medical Services Advisory Council (NEMSAC), which is authorized by Congress to advise the Department of Transportation (DOT) and the Federal Interagency Committee on EMS (FICEMS).

Dr. Carol Cunningham, State Medical Director for the Ohio Department of Public Safety was re-appointed as a representative of the EMS Medical Director sector.

"I am both honored and humbled to be reappointed to the NEMSAC for a second term," said Dr. Cunningham. "I am also eternally grateful for the opportunity to serve our great nation in any capacity that I can and will continue to do so to the best of my abilities."

The new and returning appointees assume a two-year term effective immediately. The Council meets three times per year to discuss its recommendations; the first meeting of the new Council will take place in the summer of 2015.
