Ohio Bureau of Motor Vehicles Selects Winner of “What’s on Your Plate?” Contest

COLUMBUS –The Bureau of Motor Vehicles (BMV) has selected its latest “What’s on Your Plate?” winner!

As this quarter’s winner, Pattie Stechschulte of Westerville will be featured on the BMV’s Web site, Facebook and Twitter pages. She will also receive a decorative license plate with the personalization of her choice.

Pattie’s plate reads 4MYJCK. Pattie bought the plate and created the message as a great way to honor and recognize her 16 year old son's brave struggles with autism. Pattie says his severe autism diagnosis never gets him down and thinks her plate is a great way to celebrate him. Pattie says people stop her to say they love her plate to which Pattie is always happy to brag about her awesome kid that is she is so proud of.

The BMV still wants to hear from you! If you have a unique personalized license plate, send a photo of you with your personalized license plate and a brief summary of how you chose your plate’s message. Email the photo and summary to Communications@dps.ohio.gov and you could be featured on BMV’s Facebook page and BMV’s official website. You could also win a decorative plate award with the personalization of your choice! Plates must be current and valid. Winners will be selected quarterly.
