BUREAU OF MOTOR VEHICLES TO PRESENT HIGH SCHOOL ART CONTEST WINNER WITH COMMEMORATIVE PLATE

WHO: Don Petit, Registrar, Ohio Bureau of Motor Vehicles
Representatives from Delaware Hayes High School
Byron Borgmann, Winner of BMV High School Art
Contest

WHAT: Byron Borgmann, Delaware Hayes High School student and winner of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles
(BMV) high school art contest, will receive a special commemorative plate award, which features Bryon's original artwork.

WHEN: Friday, May 22, 2015
10:00 a.m.

WHERE: Delaware Hayes High School
289 Euclid Ave
Delaware, OH 43015

BACKGROUND: The BMV launched the contest in March, which was aimed at students in grades 9-12. The BMV requested original artwork related to the BMV. The BMV received 64 submissions from high-school aged students across the state. BMV staff narrowed the submissions down to five and then the public voted and selected the winner on BMV social media.

As the winner, Byron's artwork will be permanently displayed in the BMV headquarters located in Columbus and will be temporarily displayed in the Statehouse over the summer.
