Motorcycle Club Members Convicted of Alcohol, Firearm Violations

Ohio Investigative Unit efforts led to arrests

The investigation of an illegal bar run by a Toledo motorcycle club led to six convictions. These convictions were for alcohol violations and one for violating Ohio's concealed weapons law.

Agents from the Ohio Investigative Unit, working in partnership with Lucas County Sheriff's Deputies, executed a search warrant in September 2004 as a result of an investigation into a club selling alcohol without a liquor license. During the investigation, agents and deputies confiscated 1,247 containers of beer and arrested one member for carrying a concealed weapon in violation of Ohio law.
