OHIO AWARDS CERTIFICATION TO THE BELLEFONTAINE POLICE DEPARTMENT FOR ADOPTING STANDARDS

COLUMBUS – The Bellefontaine Police Department (Logan County) has adopted and implemented state standards established by the Ohio Collaborative Community-Police Advisory Board as part of the state's efforts to strengthen community and police relations.

The agency joins more than 100 other agencies who have become certified by meeting standards for the use of force, including deadly force, and agency recruitment and hiring. The standards are the first of their kind in Ohio and were developed by the Collaborative in August 2015.

The state has partnered with the Buckeye State Sheriffs' Association and the Ohio Association of Chiefs of Police to help certify Ohio's nearly 1,000 law enforcement agencies on a process to ensure that they are in compliance with Ohio's new standards.

Certifications will continue throughout 2016. The first list of all Ohio compliant agencies will be published in March 2017.
